POLITICAL CIRCLES BOOM CANDIDATES FOR 1920 CAMPAIGN

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE BUSY WITH FOLLOW-UPS IN WASHINGTON.

WOMEN PLAY PART

Flood of Application for Chicago Tickets Is Already Received.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Washington, Dec. 11.—Although the republican national committee has adjourned its sessions here after selecting Chicago as the place and June 8 as the time for the national convention, political circles in the capital were kept alive today by the various booms for republican presidential candidates for 1920.

Many republican leaders have left for their homes but a large number remained for the meeting today of the state chairmen, who have organized a series of questions under discussion.

The committee adopted a resolution commending the states which have called for the extension of the suffrage amendment and urging the other states to do so in time to permit women to vote in the 1920 elections.

Organization Is Discussed. Organization and coordination methods for the coming campaign were discussed today at a meeting of the national association of republican state chairmen. Will H. Hays, the party's national chairman, and other officials of the national organization participated in the consideration of measures to insure harmony among the various state organizations.

Every state was represented, each of the chairmen who could not attend sending some one to act in his place. There was a general agreement that Chairman Hays' plan to decentralize campaign contributions by limiting the amounts accepted should be extended as far as practicable into the state campaigns.

While the state leaders were in conference officials of the national committee began laying out the details for the national convention. A. T. Hertz, the Kentucky committee member, and other officials of the convention committee, was flooded with applications for tickets and predictions of the number of delegates to be attracted in making satisfactory arrangements.

600 Party Leaders Present. More than 600 party leaders from over the country were expected to meet here yesterday, a circumstance which led some of the wheel horses to predict that the Chicago meeting would attract one of the greatest crowds in the history of conventions. The activity of women in politics next year is expected to increase in proportion to the increasing size of the crowd.

Friends of Chairman Hays started a movement to elect him as president of the national convention committee through the campaign, reminding of who is nominated for president. The committee passed a resolution of approval of Mr. Hays' work.

Galen L. Tait, the Maryland chairman, presided at the meeting of state leaders today in the absence of Raymond Benjamin, California, who is head of the association.

NEW LIBERAL PARTY NOT RECOMMENDED

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] St. Louis, Dec. 11.—There was no recommendation for the organization of a new political party in the report of the committee on the subject submitted to the national conference of liberals here today.

The report apparently was a disappointment to those who expected to see here for the purpose of insisting that a new political organization be established.

It was recommended that the committee of forty-eight, which is conducting the conference form a permanent organization, retain its present name, the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship, and hold its annual convention not later than July 1.

The executive committee of this organization was urged to cooperate with executives of similar organizations so that greater political influence would be had in working for their common interests—more economic and industrial conditions.

CITY WILL REMAIN ON 9-HOUR SCHEDULE, COAL BOARD VOTES

Discussion Points Out That Garfield Restrictions Not Necessary Here.

Janesville's business houses will continue to operate on a 9-hour schedule while factories will not be closed until official orders from Federal Administrator Garfield have been received by the local fuel administrator through local railroad agents.

This decision will be observed by the coal advisory board after a long discussion in Mayor Welsh's office at the city hall last night.

That six-hour restrictions are necessary in Janesville at this time; that other cities similarly situated are not observing the Garfield edict; and that the coal advisory board is passing provisions for strict enforcement of the 9-hour regulations; darkening half the ornamental street lights and the city hall windows to keep open for the sale of newspapers and periodicals only, without using extra heat or light.

Adult Official Notice. "I can see no necessity at this time for crippling Janesville's industries and sending the city into a state of work for three days a week, especially when other cities the size of Janesville are not carrying out the Garfield order," declared Mayor Welsh.

"Enforcement of the federal order would be a calamity here at this time," declared Mayor Welsh. "The city is fairly well supplied with fuel and there will probably be no suffering here. It was agreed that the Garfield order should be continued until such time as the city could be returned to normal conditions.

COMMONS' RAIL BILL IS ATTACKED BY LA FOLLETTE

WISCONSIN SENATOR DECLARES FREIGHT RATES WOULD BOOST H. C. L.

SENATOR SUFFERING Background Is Specter of Industrial Unrest He Says.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Washington, Dec. 11.—Living costs would be increased by enactment of the Commons railroad bill, because of the inevitable advance in freight rates it would entail, the senator declared today by Senator La Follette, republican, Wisconsin, in opening the third day of his attack on the measure.

"The increase in rates which this bill provides for will increase the cost of living at the time when the whole country is demanding speedily reduced rates," declared the senator.

"If prices are not put down quickly the suffering that will come to the people will have no parallel in history. We have reached the limit and we must realize that back of all is the spectre of industrial unrest."

Senator La Follette declared that legislation which would add to the cost of living "should find support in this body."

"And that is precisely what the bill will do," he added. "Just as soon as the roads are turned back to the interstate commerce commission they will be compelled to make rates high enough to give them a return of 5% or 6%."

Experts have told the senator that the bill would increase rates. "The bill would increase rates," declared the senator.

Ho Hum!

Put your guests to sleep with an old fashioned melody and wake them up—but never mind about waking them up. The main task of the hostess is to coax them to slumberland. After an elaborate dinner, which has the effect of making most folks reasonably docile, tuck your guests into bed and bid them pleasant dreams for an hour.

Drifted Roads Keep Milk Trucks Idle; Some Traffic Points Entirely Cut Off

WEATHER PREDICATION INDICATES ANOTHER STORM MAY BE ON WAY; SENTIMENT FAVORS OPENING HIGHWAYS.

Weather: Warmer and unsettled. With this indication that another storm may be on the way to further impede traffic on the country highways of Rock county and perhaps cripple road transportation entirely, and reports reaching here that some towns are entirely cut off—especially Footville—from the larger cities, and milk and other commercial deliveries are still far behind schedule, sentiment for keeping the roads open during all the winter months is crystallizing.

"Patsy Dooley"

Several of the companies among them, Keen and Campbell said, did not send their trucks out to make collections of milk along the roads this morning fearing that it would be useless. The Milkmaid Dairy company declared that it got its trucks here yesterday only by hiring farmers to go ahead and make an opening for them. Others said that they could get no help from the farmers.

SOUTHERN FLOODS LEAVE THOUSANDS WITHOUT HOMES

Heavy Rains Catch Farmers Unaware; Storms Worst Since 1886.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 11.—Several thousand persons were homeless today and many more out of employment as a result of flooding rivers in Alabama, Georgia, and Mississippi. Railroad schedules particularly in lower Alabama were disrupted by the heavy rains. Property loss was estimated in millions.

Rivers in three states had reached their highest stages in 100 years, but the loss of life was remarkably small.

Fear for Safety of Hundreds. Montgomery, Ala., was the only city isolated by the waters although a score of others were partly cut off. It was estimated that 2500 persons, chiefly negroes, were housed in the city. The loss of life was remarkably small.

Five are known to have been lost, and scores of persons have been marooned. Owing to the rapidly rising waters, swiftness of currents and lack of boats, rescue work is slow and hazardous.

One hundred and fifteen negro convicts and 15 white guards are marooned at convict camp number 4, 10 miles northeast of Montgomery near the Tallapoosa river.

The floods are the worst since 1886, and coming suddenly, caught the farmers and stockmen in the river valleys unawares. The loss to crops and livestock will be large.

ORGANIZATION TABLE OF NATIONAL GUARD UNDERGOES CHANGE

By Lieut. Col. Byron Beveridge.
Madison, Dec. 11.—(By wire.)—The change in the table of organization of the Wisconsin national guard units is to be allowed to select so far as possible the branch of the service they desire to have. Whether infantry, cavalry, machine gun, signal, engineer or train units, Wisconsin is not to have as much infantry as was originally expected and it is the belief of Gen. Orlando Holway that the greatest satisfaction can be given each community by letting it select the branch it is considered the best adapted for. Orders are now being prepared to be sent out from the adjutant general's office officially showing the following units for the Wisconsin national guard:

One division headquarters troop (3 officers, 33 men, 71 horses, 13 motorcycles, 3 motor cars, 1 motor truck).

One infantry brigade headquarters (3 officers, 33 men, 71 horses, 13 motorcycles, 3 motor cars, 1 motor truck).

Two regiments of infantry (each regiment to consist of 12 letter companies of 8 officers and 99 enlisted men, headquarters company, 1 officer and 58 men including band of 25, machine gun company, 4 officers and 53 men, supply company, 3 officers and 29 men, medical detachment, 4 officers and 24 men).

Four separate battalions of infantry (to be converted later into machine gun or other tactical units, 12 letter companies, 12 officers and 99 men per company).

One regiment of cavalry (12 letter troops of 3 officers and 70 men per troop, headquarters troop, 1 officer and 34 men, including band of 25, machine gun troop, 4 officers and 70 men, supply troop, 3 officers and 42 men, medical detachment, 4 officers and 24 men. Each troop will have not to exceed 32 federal riding horses).

One separate squadron of cavalry (later to be converted into a machine gun battalion, 3 officers and 70 men. An addition officer will be appointed when converted into machine gun).

One regiment of field artillery (155 MM motor division, to consist of 6 batteries, 5 officers and 126 men, headquarters company, 2 officers and 58 men, including band of 25, supply company of 3 officers and 58 men, medical detachment, 4 officers and 24 men. These units to be completely motorized, guns to be drawn by 5-ton tractors).

These units to be completely motorized, guns to be drawn by 5-ton tractors).

One regiment of signal troops (headquarters, 2 officers and 6 men; 1 wire company, 3 officers and 75 men, 1 radio company, 3 officers and 75 men, 1 outpost company, 3 officers and 75 men, 1 messenger company, 3 officers and 75 men. These are mounted organizations entitled to federal horses).

One regiment of engineers (Two battalions of three companies each, each letter company consisting of 4 officers and 109 men, all officers and 24 men mounted, 75 to be equipped with rifles to act as infantry at home stations. The supply company is merged with the headquarters company to consist of 5 officers and 75 men. There is no band. Medical detachment, 3 officers and 15 men).

Cavalry division: One train headquarters and military police (headquarters, 4 officers and 6 men, police, 2 troops cavalry, each 3 officers and 70 men. Medical detachment 3 officers and 13 men).

One ammunition train (motorized section only) (5 truck companies, each 1 lieutenant and 55 men. Motorized with guns, motorcycles and 81 motor trucks. 300 to be equipped with rifles to be used as infantry at home stations).

One supply train (motorized section only) (Four motor truck companies each 1 lieutenant and 55 men. Armed with rifle to be used as infantry at home station).

One sanitary train (including motorized section only and hospital, 3 officers and 5 men; motor ambulance company, 3 officers and 55 men; headquarters hospital, 3 officers and 4 men, one motor field hospital, 4 officers and 55 men).

One engineer train (headquarters and supply sections only, 1 captain and 23 men).

STATE AID SERVICE FUND MISUNDERSTOOD

Madison, Dec. 11.—Upon his return from an investigation in the eastern section of the state relative to service men drawing state aid Col. J. Turner reports that the fund is a misunderstanding relative to the fund the state appropriated for that purpose. It is simply an emergency fund to aid those who are incapacitated for work pending their receiving federal aid, which in many cases has been slow in arriving. Colonel Turner has found that in many cases men are drawing state aid who are carrying on their regular vocation. In one city he found 53 men receiving state aid, and there being but one being that it was a bonus. Those who are not entitled to the emergency aid and who are now drawing it will be dropped from the list.

MILTON CHORAL UNION WILL GIVE CONCERT

The Milton Choral union will hold its annual community concert in the college auditorium at 8 o'clock, Dec. 18, at which time they will give Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise." Arthur Kraft, a well-known singer of Chicago, will do the tenor solo work and will also sing two groups of songs. Music lovers of Janesville are invited. No admission fee will be charged.

NEWS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

The All Round Girl

Red Cheeks and Pep

What Mary Ate

By Mollie Price Cook

"Ain't you got no more doughnuts, Mary?"

"No, Mary, you have already had three."

This was at breakfast. Mary sat up late, as usual, feeling seedy, so she ate some doughnuts and jam and drank a cup of tea.

At noon Mary pushed aside the nice soup, lettuce, salad, and omelet which her mother had prepared for her. "I don't like that stuff," she said. "I am going to raid the pantry and see if I can find some pie."

To the pantry Mary went and found a piece of pie which she ate. Then she swallowed a glass of water, picked a few lumps of sugar from the bowl on the table and went back to school.

After school Mary bought an apple. It cost five cents, so the apple was of poor quality and the lady who sold it was very stingy.

One of the girls met Mary on the way home and gave her some gum drops and a dill pickle and her family was hungry and all her family wondered why she could not eat much dinner except the dessert.

Now Mary's complexion is poor. She gets headaches and lags about in a peevish manner. "I must get a glass of fruit and drink a quart of milk a day do you think she would be healthier? If she ate plenty of cereals, eggs and vegetables and fruit and nut and pastry do you think she would develop pep and be a success?"

Teachers are now accommodated at the cafeteria with special rates. Their menu today was cocoa, milk, macaroni and cheese, baked ham, and cornstarch pudding.

Fifteen hundred invitations at 8 cents a piece were ordered last evening by the committee on graduation arrangements. Many different styles of invitations were presented by a salesman from a nearby company.

Miss Ella Melner, senior class advisor, met with the committee.

The Red Cross magazine has been enlarged with many new departments being installed. Those who subscribe to the magazine now get it for $1. The regular price is $1.50.

VOCATIONAL SCHOOL.

Two scholarships of $100 each have been awarded to the local vocational school by the state vocational board. The two pupils who make the best progress in their work and show the most regular attendance will receive the scholarships.

The vocational director and local board will determine the two pupils who will receive the scholarships.

Several more scholarships of $400 will be awarded to high school graduates who wish to pursue technical education in higher vocational studies. Competitive examinations will be given to determine those who will receive these scholarships.

The Samson Tractor company has loaned one of the latest model tractors to the vocational school for a year. The boys of the day school and the evening classes will use the tractor.

Many of the commercial firms in the city have given the vocational pupils practical problems to work on, which are met in their business.

Frames for doll houses to be used in the kindergarten are being made by the vocational school pupils. Three sets are being completed now.

Music racks for the high school orchestra are to be made by the seventh and eighth grades of the city and the vocational school students.

Wolf Hunting Is Fad On County Farms

Wolf hunting in the spare time of Rock county farmers is becoming quite a fad and a most profitable form of recreation, according to a statement made at the Office of County Clerk Howard W. Lee yesterday afternoon.

Burr Jones, farmer, living near Evansville, has been the second person to shoot a wolf in the past three weeks. Delivering the scalp of a full-grown wolf to the office of the county clerk yesterday afternoon, he received the sum of $50, a bounty of $25 paid by the county, and a like amount by the state.

Wolves have been seen in the vicinity of Edgerton during the past week, according to word received from there. A party of hunters saw four wolves in a grassy field about five miles north of Edgerton. The hasty retreat made by the animals deprived the hunters of a possible shot.

A second hunt is to be staged in the near future by residents in the vicinity where the wolves were seen and it is expected that the two-fold purpose of killing the wolves and the realization of a possible bounty of $50, will furnish enthusiasm enough for an old-time wolf hunt.

Cartoonist Tells How He Stumbled Onto "Jiggs"

A quarter of a century ago a teacher in the St. Louis, Mo., high school stuck out her hand, and timidly 13-year-old George McManus advanced on the side of the school room with a picture he had just drawn of a youngster with a turned up nose and a generous sprinkling of freckles.

This was the first time the famous creator of "Bringing Up Father" drew public attention to his work. "I expected a whole lot of a licking from the school matron," said the cartoonist the other day, "but apparently she felt my dad could give me a sounder thrashing, and so she sent this bit of art with a few others to my father. It was one of those friendly games where the players carried bricks and axes for entertainment.

"It is the public which makes a comic successful. I tried out a dozen, until 'Bringing Up Father' struck the popular fancy. That was a few years ago when I joined the Hearst organization."

"Jiggs" goes to China. "Jiggs" and "Maggie" now make millions laugh in both hemispheres. It is even published in Shanghai, China. The man who is responsible for it is the highest paid cartoonist in the world. He makes his home in New York, and is at his desk regularly every day. He enjoys the profession of amusing people. He is a man of many talents. He is a man of many talents. He is a man of many talents.

When I was 21 I came to New York and drew comics for the New York World. You remember 'Panhandle Pete,' 'Let George Do It' and 'Other Comics' that I drew during that time and since. The others are out of memory of the average reader of funny pages. They all ask: 'How did you strike the popular characters of Jiggs and Maggie?'

Remembers Irish Comedian. "It was this way: Indebtedly in my mind since childhood remains the picture of old Billy Barry, the best Irish comedian of his day. My dad was in the show business, and I used to see Barry in his play suits often. I remember every detail of that play. It is practically the same as 'The Americaner' of today with the change of the leading character. The character portrayed by Barry is the Jiggs of today, and his wife Maggie is the same leading actress in that play. They used to have a poker game every night at 9:15, and there were people in St. Louis who would flock into that house just to see the real Jiggs. He was very quiet during supper, and I fancied the strap would get it worked just before bedtime. Instead he quietly asked:

"Did you do that?" "Then His Career Began. 'I admitted it, and without a word he went out of the house. The next morning my father told me to get on my hat and coat and go down to the St. Louis Republic to work. He had brought the freckled drawing to the editor, and it made a hit. I worked for a year at $5 a week, and then was given a dollar raise. That was 24 years ago, and I've been drawing cartoons ever since."

This is the latest," he said the other day, selecting a letter from a

AMERICAN LEGION

Legion Officers Meet Dec. 15.

New York, Dec. 11.—Department commanders representing all the state organizations of The American Legion in the United States will meet in Washington, D. C., on December 15th for a three day conference with the government officials and appropriate committees of the House and Senate. The purpose of the conference will be to work out in detail the recommendations of the recent national convention of the Legion held in Minneapolis less than a month ago. The conference will be composed of the leaders of the American Legion in each state, practically all the department commanders having signified their intention to attend in person.

Franklin D'Olier, national commander of the Legion, made the following statement today regarding the purpose of the conference:

"The first concern of the representatives of the American Legion who attend the Washington meeting will be the welfare of disabled service men. Based on a careful study of conditions affecting these men, the American Legion presents specific recommendations to government officials and members of congress calculated to secure for the disabled men and their families that liberal treatment which they have reason to expect from the people of a grateful and patriotic nation."

"To this end immediate action is necessary not only on the part of officials of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, the Federal Board for Vocational Education and the Public Health Service but also on the part of congress. Legislation should be enacted and carried into effect promptly to put the treatment of these men and their families as regards compensation, hospitalization, medical care and vocational training on an adequate and liberal basis."

Through the co-operation of R. G. Chalmers-Hones, director of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, the Legion conference as its first business will consult and advise with the heads of the War Risk Bureau, the Federal Board for Vocational Education and the Public Health Service. Meetings also will be arranged with the members of the appropriate committees of congress having charge of legislation necessary to carry out the Legion's recommendations regarding not only the disabled men and their families but also other matters of national interest and concern to service men in general.

This will be the first meeting of the new national officers with the state officers of the Legion since the convention. It is expected that at the same time the military policy committee of the Legion will meet in Washington with Senator Wadsworth's committee of congress to discuss the military policy suggested by the Legion at the recent national convention. An effort will be made also to have the Legion's committee on land development and home aid for ex-service men meet there.

A pile of correspondence on his desk. "The New York American has just been asked by this chap to decide a wager. He bet that George McManus is a horse-thief and a murderer, serving a life term, and is sending his daily comic strips from the jug!"

consult with congress leaders on appropriate legislation while the general conference is in session.

The department commanders and others representing the Legion will meet first at the headquarters of the Legion's legislative committee, 534 Woodward building. Mr. D'Olier and Lemuel Bolles, national adjutant, who has been in charge of the new national headquarters in Indianapolis, will reach Washington next Saturday.

Evidently No Team Waited Long Enough

Now that the 1919 baseball season is history with the Red Sox champions of the world and the White Sox clinging to the American League batting, the predictions, made before and during the campaign, make interesting reading. List to what George Stallins, pitcher of the Sox, had to say of the Sox's chances as late as August 7: "Moran has three good players," he said. "Doubert, Groh and Roush. Their pitchers are good, of course, but I doubt if they can keep it up. It's just a case of a bunch of pitchers showing more class than they are supposed to possess. "My pitchers back in 1914 may be better, but I don't think the fans thought they had a right to, but they demonstrated after that season that it was no joke. I don't think they are good right now, and Bill James had plenty of class but hurt his arm. Any good battery of batters can beat King and Eller if they wait 'em out."

CHANGES MADE IN SAMSON PIN RULES

Several important changes in the rules of the Samson Bowling league were made last night at a meeting of the team captains. These additions, together with the rules as previously formulated, in conjunction with the A. B. C. rules will govern all arguments in the future. Most important among the changes were in regard to absent players. It was decided that all games shall start at 7:30 sharp. If one man is absent from a team, the game will start anyway at the appointed time with four men. Should the absent appear before the first game is over, he may be allowed to roll, otherwise he must remain one even if he comes later. In any event that one man does not roll under this rule, his team will be permitted an average of 125 in each game. Where two men fail to show up at 7:30 a half-hour's grace will be permitted. Failure to arrive at 8 o'clock forfeits the game to the other side. The matter of postponed games between the Janesville Machine company and Paris stock was also discussed and it was decided to have these games meet in the near future to roll them off.

BRODHEAD PLAYS J. H. S. TOMORROW

Janesville high school plays Brodhead on the school gym floor here tomorrow. The game will mark the opening of the season for the local high. After practicing daily under grueling pass-work and basket shooting, and in guarding, the locals are ready with a good appreciation to meet their opponents. However, not until after today's work-out will a team be picked. When seen this morning the officials of the Janesville team did not care to make public a line-up. In fact they said that only a tentative one had been worked out and that would in all probabilities see some big changes before the referee's whistle blows tomorrow starting the season of the high school. The following men are considered among those who might play. Of this group, it is not believed that Powers will play because of his injured shoulder. Clarence Hager is the star man of the locals and at an election to be held tonight it is probable that he will be chosen captain. Hager, Chad Newmark, Kenneth Beck, Roland Gridley, Lohrer Tinsdale, George Raubacher, Phillip Smith, Loret Black, Percy Hall, Kenneth Kober, and Leo Powers. This is the material from which a choice will be made.

In addition to the football awards five cross country men were awarded "W's" and one man, Crump, the "aW's" and one man, Crump, the "aW's". A. R. Barr, captain; W. Brothers, P. Gombart, R. Meyers, W. Ramsey, were the receivers of the "W" insignia. The following men were awarded college insignia in cross country: A. R. Stevens, R. Furstbeck, M. Braun, R. T. Frederick, P. A. Zinko. The following were granted class numbers on account of points scored in the annual inter-class cross country run of October 25: Wade, Noble, Fulton. George W. Martin, president of the Badger Bill club, was elected chairman annual Wisconsin Sports Carnival to be held on Lake Mendota the latter part of February.

Will Janesville Wake to Call for Better Americans?

(BY FRANK SINCLAIR)

Back in 1916, just before the United States entered the war, the writer was interviewing Justice John Ford of the New York Supreme Court. During the conversation, which dwelt upon the possible entry of this country into the world conflict, the eminent jurist said that in his opinion the millions of young men of the cities would form a more efficient material for soldiers because of their lack of exercise, while the boys from the farms and rural districts would be physically fit. He was not far wrong. Statistics later showed when the youth of the nation was called to arms, but did it indicate to any great extent with our winning of the war? The result speaks for itself.

What happened to bring about the change? Regular setting up exercises each morning; hard drilling and hiking and vigorous work; the plenty of sleep made these city chaps as sturdy and vigorous fighters as the frontier tillers of the soil.

The exercise which these men got, and the sports they engaged in, made them better not only in body, but in mind. They were more alert, more even their sight. Sturdier Americans came of the World War.

And now, with several millions of those youths back in the harness of civilian pursuits, every one of them has formed a greater love for sports of all sorts and a keen liking for the great outdoors.

Right here in Janesville we have hundreds of these men itching to take part in sports or be witnesses at them. They are red-blooded in every vein. They want more indoor sports, and more outdoor. They seek more football, basketball, boxing, wrestling. In the spring they will want more baseball.

Are they going to have it? Space is lacking for the indoor varieties. Our government today is advocating greater participation by all men, and all women, too, in athletics. They urge this because healthy bodies are the result, and healthy bodies mean more Americans and a superior America. Our leaders also are looking into the future. They believe that if another war should come upon us, we would be far better equipped if our people are more physically fit.

What is Janesville going to do about it? Lay along and tell the boys to enjoy themselves as best they might? Or are we going to take this matter up as a community necessity? We have athletes in the schools under paid instructors. We have them in the colleges and universities. Yet when a man enters the business of making his mark in the world, we forget that then he needs the exercise just as much, if not more.

Let us do something.

The photograph shows how the accident went beyond the thrill he had planned. The car was supposed to leap the gap in the bridge but it did not gain sufficient momentum and so crashed 100 feet into the ravine. This mishap, however, did not deter the director from making another attempt later.

AN OPEN LETTER FROM MR. SMITH

Our Government made it easy for you to buy bonds and you bought them. We believe you are anxious to buy more bonds, so we too have made it easy for you. No longer do you need $100, $250, $500 or $1000 to purchase a 6% Farm Mortgage bond. Just 10% of the amount of the one you select will reserve it for you and you can pay the balance in equal monthly payments. Isn't that easy? And here's the best part of the whole plan---

YOUR PAYMENTS DRAW INTEREST. That means that if you start buying one right now, the first payment you make will draw interest at 6%--the next one at 6% and so on until the bond is paid for. When you've paid for it, clip the coupons, just as you do with your Liberty Bonds.

These 6% Farm Mortgage Bonds are secured by first mortgages on large farms and ranches in the Northwest. During the last quarter of a century we have sold thousands of these bonds and the purchasers have always been perfectly satisfied.

And now, we have given you an opportunity to invest your money in good, substantial securities, paying the highest rate of interest consistent with safety. Not only have we given you the opportunity--we have made it easy for you. Can you afford not to take advantage of it?

Yours very truly,

Heart and Home Problems

BY ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Letters May be Addressed to Mrs. Thompson, in Care of the Gazette

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I read something in your column written by "Miss Phila. Sallie." I would like to say that "Sallie" is very wrong. There is only a certain kind of girls who allow kissing and hugging and low fellows risk one like that for a wife. Any girl who allows kissing, etc., is not regarded very respectfully around our place. "Sallie" will live and learn.

Thank you for your letter. It shows that there is another who holds his views in regard to kissing.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am corresponding with a friend of mine and have been with him a few times. My girl friend has been going with her friend about five months. We would like to know if it would be all right to give our friends a picture of ourselves for a Christmas present. I expect to marry my friend soon.

Unless you give photographs, you should not give photographs for a present.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am madly in love. I am in my senior year in high school. The father of the young man is very rich and is not expected to live long. He threatens to disown his son if he marries against his wishes.

Shall we marry now or wait until his father is dead?

Our ages are sixteen and eighteen. WILD DAISY.

Are you sure you love the young man and not his money? To marry for money does not bring happiness, and to marry a man with a rich father does not insure wealth. It is far easier to marry a man who shows promise of being able to earn money himself. Both of you are too young to marry without the consent of your parents. A law would not permit such a union.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl

seventeen and live with my aunt. She is very strict and will hardly allow me to speak to a boy. My mother is working in a distant city. She does not object to my having my company once in a while. My aunt married when she was thirteen and I don't think she has any right to object. What do you think about it?

SNOW DROP.

Doubleless your aunt has learned from experience that was a mistake to marry young. She wants to protect you and keep you a little girl as long as she can. Try to see her point of view, and since you live with her, respect her wishes. When you are eighteen you are certainly old enough to have your own affairs.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a boy seventeen years of age and I have known a girl for four years. I have been going up to her house and talking to her.

I introduced my boy friend to her and we both went up often. Now he is trying to make a date with her and so am I. I am bashful. Will you please tell me how to make a date?

UNHAPPY FRIENDS.

Ask the girl if you can go to see her on a certain evening, or invite her to go to a show with you.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am in love with a boy four years older than myself and my folks will not even let me speak to him. I am eighteen and think I am old enough to take care of myself. But they think differently. I am sure the boy loves me for he has told me several times and wants me to marry him. What shall I do?

LEOLA.

You are too young to marry against your parents' wishes. Doubtless they have a reason for objecting to the marriage. It is not foolish enough to disregard their judgment, because they have your happiness at heart.

They have been informed in some self-commended "specialist's" literature, are of the gravest significance. Women, the poor, guttural creatures, worn, demented, sick, are periodically normal conditions or perhaps trifling disturbances which take it from the indelible "female" weakness, sharks, lead to dreadful consequences unless the victim consumes bottle after bottle of worthless dope which serves only to disguise the taste of the alcohol that makes the glibly feminine forget momentarily her anxieties.

Then there are awful chapters in certain medical books wherein the lady is thoroughly indoctrinated on certain evils, vague but terrifying hints of "insanity" thrown out, and a lot of such rot from authority is poured in, drawing on a too facile imagination when discussing some subjects, and these Bluebeard's chamber chapters contribute their share toward the unhappiness of people who have nothing the matter.

Well, at that, it is always a pleasure to dispel such delusions, and so we come to the point, written on one side of the paper, in ink, and properly signed.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

The Parents' Guide.

Please give me an idea how you would proceed to educate children (a boy aged eight and a girl aged 12) about sexual hygiene. (Mrs. R. A.)

Answer—It is too large a subject to answer in a few words. One of the best books I can suggest is a book by O. S. Davis and Dr. E. A. P. Drake, entitled "The Parents' Guide" and published by J. L. Nichols & Company, Atlanta, Ga., and Naperville, Ill. This little book gives a father or mother a correct source of procedure to follow in the proper education of son or daughter.

Again Dr. Brady begs to call readers' attention to the requirement that letters be properly signed. Although names are never published, no anonymous letters are answered by Dr. Brady.

Late Marriage.

Late getting married. Nearly 40 years old. Am I too old to bear children? (S. B.)

Answer—Certainly not.

Will you kindly inform me as to the possible results of taking sal soda as a remedy for indigestion, bloating, trouble, and obesity? (W. R. G. R.)

Answer—Sal soda is sodium carbonate, otherwise called washing soda (not to be confused with sodium bicarbonate, which is commonly known as baking soda).

Its only effect on the urinary apparatus is to render urine less acid, sometimes an advantage. So far as I know it is harmless.

Asthma.

Asthma came on when I was 10 years old without any apparent cause. I am now 22 years old. Have had it practically all my life. Never found anything to relieve me except Asthma Cure, and now I have to take it all the time and it seems to be losing its effect.

Answer—If you will send a stamped addressed envelope I will mail you a monograph which may help in the control of your asthma.

FOR THE ONE-DISH MEAL.

There is a type of inexpensive meat dish that is very popular with the homemaker—the so-called "one-plate" dish. It is usually a combination of a small amount of meat with vegetables, rice, macaroni, etc.

This dish is not a mere "stew," which always suggests left-overs, but a casserole, freshly prepared.

And not only does the family enjoy it, but the good homemaker who sees all the nutritious elements of the meat prepared in one dish, enjoys it, for it has meant less work in cooking and serving and in the dish washing which is to follow.

Casserole of Liver.—One pair of sweetbreads, one pound of liver, three potatoes, three carrots, one onion, one turnip, two green peppers, salt, pepper, thyme, one tablespoon flour.

Parboil, blanch and cut the sweetbreads into dice. Cut the liver into thin slices, cover with hot water and let stand about five minutes. Parboil the vegetables and cut into dice. Place the vegetables into the casserole, then the liver dredged with flour, then a sprinkling of diced green pepper, then sweetbreads. Season and continue the layers until all are used. Four two cupsfuls of hot water or stock over all, sprinkle with flour, cover and bake for one hour.

Meat Corn Pudding.—Three cups of corn, one pound of chopped beef, one tablespoon butter, one tablespoon flour, one teaspoon chopped onion, one cup stock, salt and paprika to taste, bread crumbs.

The butter is browned in a saucepan with the chopped onion, then flour is added, browned and beef stock poured in. The mixture is rubbed smooth, then salt and paprika to taste are added. Meat and corn are put in a baking dish in layers, each layer being seasoned, and the sauce poured over. The top is dotted with bread crumbs or with crumbled cheese if preferred.

It is baked covered, in the oven for half an hour and uncovered for 20 minutes more.

DISCOVERIES.

Baking Beans.—When baking beans, and your oven is busy or you do not care to heat it, place your pan of beans directly over the low blaze of the burner of your gas stove or oil stove, cover with a larger pan, and you will find that they will be as nice as though baked in the oven.

To Keep Kitchen Table White.—A kitchen table will always look beautifully white if, after being scrubbed the usual way with hot water and soap, it is strewn lightly with salt. Then rub the table with a clean cloth, rubbing with the grain of the wood. This should be done twice a week.

House Plants thrive better and grow more quickly if a few drops of ammonia are added once a week. The water to which the ammonia is added must be lukewarm when you water your plants.

Quick to Bake.—Put sweet potatoes with the skins on in a pan to oven. You will get them baked in half the usual time and the skin will be quite soft.

Ladysmith.—At the clinic conducted by the Wisconsin Anti-tuberculosis association, 160 people were examined. The association was represented by Drs. Lawrence Sykes and Kindergarten, Milwaukee, assisted by Miss M. M. Gorse, Milwaukee, field worker for the association. Only a few cases of incipient tuberculosis were found. These were turned over to local physicians for treatment.

The expense of these clinics is borne by the association out of funds raised from the sale of "Christmas seals." The clinics are educational and are calculated to impress upon the public the importance of following a definite course of treatment under the care of the family physician to eradicate the disease.

BRIEF SLEEVED BLOUSE IS BACK

the elbow in their brief career. The first showing of these short-sleeved blouses, of course, will be in the winter resorts in the southland. There will be a few worn at afternoon affairs and restaurants during the early winter season in the northern cities, but only by the ultra-fashionable. By next spring and perhaps during the summer the short sleeves will have wide vogue. This is only a wild prophecy, however, for fashions can not be forecasted nine months in advance with any feeling of assurance.

Here is one of the newest novelty blouses which makes its appearance among the first fashions for wear in the south. It is fashioned of silk tricotette, which vies with jersey for first place as a fashion blouse fabric. The blouse is cut on busque lines with kimono sleeves. The band about the hips is embroidered in various wondrous, otherwise the blouse is perfectly plain save for a bit of self-material which finishes the plain neck line. The brief sleeves are the main features of the blouse.

WITH THE WOMEN OF TODAY

A solid Britisher is certainly getting an awful shock and it is being administered by two women. First they were quite anxious when Lady Astor announced her intention of becoming a candidate for a seat in Parliament, but they are still gasping for breath since Miss Jessie Stephens' announcement that she, too, was going to quit her job and run for Parliament.

The people were astonished at Lady Astor because of her aristocratic lineage and her bravado at stepping out from her gentle surroundings.

Miss Jessie Stephens.

roundings. They are astonished at Miss Jessie Stephens because of her aristocratic lineage and her bravado at attempting anything so far removed from the kitchen as a seat in Parliament.

For Miss Stephens, be it known, is a servant girl in a boarding house. She is a pretty raven-haired girl and she intends to run on the Labor ticket. She believes that she has had a most practical preparation for her new career, for she has been a housemaid, cook, general, head of a large common lodging house in Glasgow, porter in a chemical warehouse, and during the war she did her bit by driving a three-ton lorry. If Miss Stephens makes as good a showing as did Lady Astor there will be two mighty clever and pretty women in England's parliament.

MRS. GOULD SCORES WOMEN
Now is the time for all women and girls with some sense to come to the aid of their party in industry and commerce," according to Katherine Clemmons Gould of New York and Newport, the wife of Howard Gould, New York financier.

Mrs. Gould, president of the Women's Chamber of Commerce of New York city made these statements when attending the National Federation of College Women recently.

"It is high time the women of America should get out from under their social camouflage, drop the 'fourflush' and come to the realization that today women with common sense ideas and brains are needed as never before."

"Let them step forth into business life and get a little dirt on their noses. It'll do them good. The world with the women of today—a large majority of them—is that they are taken up too much with crazy functions and the like. Their place should be eliminated in view of the present opportunities of really doing some good in the world."

"If a woman is trained in business she ought to go into business with men."

A woman is keener in business than when she stays home and sews or talks around. When she gets out with real men she is ashamed to wear silly clothes or to spend time in powdering her face. She'll cover her face with the fashion bug until she does."

HIRE AND THERE
Women are to have an important part in enforcing the anti-prostitution act in England.

Three out of every four Germans more than 40 years of age are women.

In England at the present time there are 1,883,000 more females than there are males.

North Wales Congregational college at Bangor, England, has only recently admitted its first woman student.

Pastor, 100 Years Old
Has Preached 60 Years

BLOOMINGTON, Ill.—One hundred years old and preaching regularly in the Methodist Episcopal church near Eureka, is the record of Rev. Christian Reesor, one of the quaintest characters in Illinois. He has exhorted his followers regularly every Sunday for more than 40 years and is believed to be the oldest clergyman in the United States in age and period of active service.

Rev. Reesor was born in Lorraine, France, Sept. 16, 1819, and came to America at the age of 20. He was educated at Cincinnati and came to Peoria in 1840. He has voted at every presidential election since. Coincidentally with his services as Methodist pastor, he ran a farm. For the past 20 years he has devoted himself exclusively to ministerial work and has left the operation of his farm to his children.

Due, he believes, to his pastoral life, he has never known illness, and despite his hundred years is active. He urges his people to follow the paths indicated by the Bible. "I just admonish them," he explains. "For 10 years I haven't used a text in my preaching."

Rev. Reesor has always voted the democratic ticket and is a strong supporter of the league of nations as a preventive of war. He lived in France long enough to realize the horrors of war and has always been a strong pacifist. He asked for his recipe for longevity, he replied that many years of outdoor work, wholesome food and regular hours of sleep were primary attributes.

The venerable clergyman is the father of 13 children, of whom 11 are living, as follows: John P. Reesor and Mrs. Annie Elrich, both of Nampa, Idaho; Jacob Reesor, Albany, Oregon; Mrs. Barbara Umel, Leeds, Mo.; Samuel Reesor, Calif., Ill.; Peter Reesor, Seattle, Wash.; C. B. Reesor and Mrs. Anna Elrich, Eureka, Ill.; Benjamin and David Reesor, Congerville, Ill.; Miss Lena Reesor, Peoria, Ill. He also has 73 grandchildren and 79 great-grandchildren.

Rev. Reesor has never been willingly photographed. He says that it is against his religious principles to

PERSONETTE

JOHN BUTLER YEATS.
Artist, critic, and the father of W. B. Yeats, the Irish poet, has decided opinions on many other things besides the arts. He lives at Parkside, most foreign-seeming place, a cross between a French pension and a cafe in the West Twenties in New York. In the dining room, which one enters through the kitchen, dinner is a way of passing the evening, and a very delightful way, rather than a mere means of nourishment. Here Mr. Yeats may be seen every evening presiding at his table in the corner and holding forth on a great variety of subjects to his eagerly listening and low diners. To get a place at his table is an event in many a young artist's or writer's life.

He is a patriarchal old man, with a kindly face, keen eyes, a bushy white beard and a twinkling sense of humor. Conversation at his table is rather in the form of a monologue by him, but his listeners much prefer it that way.

"Cream," he will say suddenly. "You Americans put cream on everything, cream on your pudding, cream on your porridge, cream in your coffee, cream on your fruit. And you want your whole lives like that. You live creamily, with everything smooth and rich and luxurious. Cream is the best adjective to describe your national life. Creaminess is your national ambition."

Or in a discussion of matrimony: "There ought to be cross-examinations for the would-be wedded," he remarks. "Just as the old soldiers question a new one on what he would do in an emergency, so ought the old and hardened husbands question the prospective bridegroom. They should ask him what he would do if his wife came to breakfast in girl papers, could his love stand the strain of years of bad coffee, did he realize fully that matrimony was one long struggle with in-laws? In the same should examine the bride-to-be. Would she smile sweetly when she could a burning cigarette on her best table cover? Would she refrain from calling up the office in the evening if her husband had told her he was staying in town to work? And so on. There would be fewer divorces then—in fact there would be fewer marriages."

JULIA MARLOWE.
Julia Marlowe, who retired from the stage two years ago, on account of illness, has returned only recently to join with Southern in what is announced to be their farewell tour.

Miss Marlowe was born 32 years ago in Calcutta, England. She was first known by the name of Sarah Frances Frost. It was early in her childhood that she started her stage career. That was in Cincinnati, where her parents moved, and "H. M. S. Pinafore" was the production. She was 12 years of age, and enacted a minor role in the juvenile production of the Gilbert and Sullivan opera. The late Harry Woodruff was another member of the staff. The production was given at Trenton, O., and toured through the south and west. Sarah became Josephine and, likewise, Sir Joseph Porter. Later she did Suzanne in "The Chimes of Normandy."

Robert McWade was doing "Tip Van Winkle" in those days, and Sarah gave her the first introduction to the classics. She was Balthazar in "Romeo and Juliet," Stephen in "Hunchback," Maria in "Twelfth Night," and Myrtle in "Pygmalion and Galatea." Ada Down, well known English actress, was attracted by the child and took her under her tutelage, schooling her in Shakespearean roles. Three years were devoted to this, and she returned to the stage under Miller's direction, playing Parthenia in "Ingomar." That was in 1887, and was followed by a tour in which she did "The Lady of Lyons." "As You Like It," and "The Love Chase."

Her success in Parthenia prompted her to make her New York debut in the role at the Bijou theater, Oct. 29, 1887. She followed this with Juliet and Viola, and for three years she continued in a variety of characters. In the fall of 1894 she came under the direction of A. M. Palmer, and in 1897 played Mary in "The Bonnie Prince Charlie." The title role of "Rosalind" was hers and that of "Chatterton" the latter in 1897. In the all star revival of "The Rivals," she appeared as Lydia Langlish in New York and on tour in 1897, to be followed by "Columbus," "The Countess of Valencia," "Collette," and "Barbara Froliche." In 1894 Miss Marlowe was married to Robert Fisher, with whom she co-starred for many seasons. Finally they separated.

It was in 1904 that Miss Marlowe started her first starring engagement with J. H. Southern as Beatrice in "Much Ado About Nothing," and Ophelia in "Hamlet." Later came Katherine in "The Taming of the Shrew," Portia in "The Merchant of Venice," Viola in "Twelfth Night," and other bills. Came a brief engagement, so the "The Knight of the Red Cross" then she returned to join with Southern again. She departed to produce "The God-dess of Heison," but after a brief experience returned to the Southern company and since has co-starred with him in various offerings, of which the above is a repertory.

Watertown.—Definite plans for establishment of a housing corporation to erect homes for Watertown workmen at cost, have been drawn by a committee of the Business Men's club. It is proposed to erect homes at cost approximately $4,000, without profit, and to turn them over to workers.

Sheboygan.—Misses Rhoda Kaufmann and Gretchen Schmidt, students at the Lutheran Ladies' seminary, Red Wing, Minn., lost their clothes in a $35,000 fire at the seminary building. The fire started near the rooms occupied by the girls.

CARDINALS WANT GREATER SUPPORT FROM LOCAL FANS

Greater support from the fans of Jamestown in backing up the Lakota Cardinals is asked by Mgr. Jimmie McCue. In making this announcement he says:

"The Cardinals have as good a team this year as ever before. We have a series of hard games scheduled, but to make them a success from every standpoint it is necessary that more people come out and give us their wholehearted support. We are trying to provide the people with good, clean sport in the form of baseball played by a team of the game who know their every line point."

"People will jump on a train to go to Chicago to witness a football game. They need not go so far to see our baseball matches and witness games as thrilling in every particular as many of the big gridiron contests."

Some people complain, says Jimmie, that just because the Lakotas have won their opening games, the teams have not been evenly matched. Saying that there is only a slight difference in weight in the game with Pound du Lac, and not a shade of difference in ability nor weight in the game with McCue says that every game that is booked for the future will show masters on the visitors' quintet.

The game this Saturday night should prove everything that even the most exacting of the fans wants. It is against Rockford at the armory. The team that is in championship here, and in the same class with the Cardinals.

High School and Samson Practice

A hot practice game of basketball was played at the Y. M. C. A. last night between men of the Samson Tractor company and prospective players of the high school team. It was run off to give both teams an opportunity to practice against strangers.

INSURGENTS READY TO BOLT WHEN 'BAN' WINS FIRST CLASH

New York, N. Y., Dec. 11.—The first clash in the battle for the balance of power in the American League having ended yesterday with a victory for E. B. Johnson, baseball followers awaited today with interest the next move by the insurgents. The minority clubs indicated that they would continue to oppose Johnson and his new board of directors and later carry their contentions to the courts.

Rumors were current that the insurgents would bolt the league, but Harry Frazee, president of the Boston club, said "we have no thought of getting out of the league but we will continue to go after Johnson through every legal means in our power."

The "insurgents" in the league were ousted from the directorate yesterday and a board favorable to President E. B. Johnson was elected. Frank J. Seligson, of Philadelphia; Philip D. Ball, of St. Louis, and Benjamin Minor, of Washington, were elected in place of James C. Dunn, of Cleveland; Harry Frazee, of Boston; Charles Comiskey, of Chicago; and Jacob Ruppert and T. L. Huston, of New York. The last three named have been conducting warfare against Johnson.

Johnson is served the election. Immediately after the election Johnson was served with papers in three suits brought by Ruppert and Huston. One suit attacked the validity of Johnson's 29-year contract as president of the league. Another seeks damages for his actions as regards the league club owners and some managers, including Connie Mack, of Philadelphia, and Clark Griffith, of Washington, who in the Griffith room when the regular league season began.

A crowd quickly gathered in the hotel room. It seemed as if all behind the closed door were trying to talk at the same time. The roar continued for several minutes.

SAMSONS HAVE GRIP ON FIRST IN I-C

With most of the scores averaging around 160, the games of the Industrial-Commercial league at the West Side alley last night were fast, save for the fact that two of them were won by very small margins. The Samson Tractor Knights won three straight from the East Office, and continued to lead the league. EVERYMAN'S DIARY
Yesterday I went to a Tea-Room For lunch.
You know the kind of place. Very chic and chummy. Where they operate On the Dab system.
There is a cute little Dab of a fern For a centerpiece.
And a little Dab (also dear) of chicken. And a Dab of soup that just wets the plate. But there are orange-glazed candies. And flowery orange curtains with polka-dots. And delicate refinement all over the place.

And I sat there Thinking. While I tried to find some food Under a lettuce leaf. And all of a sudden I wished I was sitting On my heels in the mud. Eating French bread and cheese By the chuck. And swapping Bull For pinhead. With a friendly, dirty polio.

The best way to get a universal military training bill passed in this country, says ex-Sergeant SOL, is to frame one that exempts everyone of voting age.

REMEMBER THAT NIGHT?
Your section was coming out after Cantigny. Worn out from the shrieking hell of the gun-pit, the dirt and the horrors of the front. You suddenly found yourself halted in a little village, beautiful in the moonlight, and standing before you and still more beautiful, a real live girl. It was too good to be true. No. It wasn't a dream—She was holding out her hand and—up came the Sergeant.
"Captain wants you," he bawled out. "We're going
